

INTRODUCTION

The Conference is organized in the frame of the DAAD project “Biotechnology in Mining – Integration of New Technologies into Educational Practice” (2015 – 2018) and cooperation between Technische Universität Bergakademie Freiberg (TU BAF), Germany, and National Mining University (NMU), Dnipro, Ukraine.

Biomining covers a wide range of environmentally friendly “green” technologies in mining based on bioleaching processes, biological treatment of mine waters, bacterial desulphurization of coal, phytoremediation of contaminated areas and others. This program is aimed at imparting the most current molecular, physiological, ecological and land management skills and technologies in the areas of mining and environment.
